

VOICES OF GREATNESS

Our team has a very focused mentality and with that comes an extreme focus on training and being the best in their respective sports. As you will see below, each individual has a similar feeling on why they chose to be a part of the POWERHANDZ Team.

"Certain things aren't in your control. Your work ethic and what you choose to do to take your skills to the next level are. POWERHANDZ products will assist you in developing those skills and revealing the true potential that lies within."

— Brian Dawkins 9X PRO BOWL AND 6X ALL-PRO

"Resistance, minimal grip and decreased dexterity on an athlete's hands while training in order to enhance sport performance could not have been designed better than POWERHANDZ products. I was amazed the first time I tried the anti grip gloves out and the slick basketball wrap. POWERHANDZ products are exceptional and effective for training in almost all sports and on top of that, they look really cool. Supreme innovation."

— The Professor STREETBALL LEGEND

"Your natural abilities will only take you so far. It's hard work, both at practice and on your own, that helps you become the greatest player you can be," said Brown. "I am excited to team up with POWERHANDZ and spread the word about their great products. Playing receiver for 27 years, including 17 in the NFL, I can see how this product could have made me better. I look forward to seeing this great teaching tool impact athletes lives."

— Tim Brown 2015 NFL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

"POWERHANDZ is a great tool to add into any Strength Coach or Athletic Trainers' workbox. It provides the necessary proprioceptive training along with the development of strength in the 9 extrinsic and 10 intrinsic muscles of the hand/wrist. As a Strength Coach, my goal is to help make every athlete better, and I believe that POWERHANDZ can help me achieve that goal by ensuring that we can cover all aspects of training."

— Bill Burgos NBA STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

"As a goalkeeper, speed, agility and strength are paramount to my success. POWERHANDZ gloves are a great training tool to improve all three. I am excited to partner with a company that develops innovative products and inspires all athletes to be their best."

— Hope Solo 2X OLYMPIC GOLD MEDALIST

Your finger strength is most important in golf because your hands control your technique and swing speed. POWERHANDZ is a great training tool to help you improve these critical elements of game.

— Nicole Hage FORMER LPGA PRO

"I've used donuts, etc for years but this is a different feel. It feels smoother. The glove feels like a batting glove and gives me that extra bat speed I need at the plate. Different than anything I've seen before but a very useful product. I recommend to all youth baseball players who are coming up."
